Interest on Margin. You shall pay interest on credit extended by COR under this Margin Agreement for the purpose of purchasing, carrying or trading securities. Interest will be charged on your average daily net settled debit balance and calculated using the interest rate schedule selected by your Broker. This interest schedule will be added to the COR Clearing Base Rate (“CCBR”) to determine your interest rate. The CCBR will change without notice to you as changes occur in the general credit markets, the broker call rate and general industry conditions relating to the extension of margin credit. On demand, you shall pay any balance owing with respect to your accounts, including fees and any costs of collection. All payments received in your account, including dividends, interest, premiums and principal payments may be applied to the balance due in your account. The rate of interest charged for the credit extended to you shall be calculated on a 360-day year and actual days elapsed. The Interest Rate will vary from time to time without prior notice, in accordance with shifts in money rates, industry conditions relating to the extension of margin credit and the general credit markets.

Securities Lending. For any securities held by COR as property on margin under this Margin Agreement or as collateral for your obligations under this Margin Agreement, you authorize COR to lend such securities, either separately or with other securities, to itself or to other entities. Securities in your margin account are registered in COR’s name and are collateral for any margin loan. You still receive credit for all dividends or interest payments on these shares and your account will be charged for any dividends or interest on short positions. If there is a decline in the market value or liquidity of securities that are the collateral for your loan or other circumstances where, in COR’s and/or your Broker’s judgment, adequate collateral does not exist, it may be necessary to request additional collateral for your margin account. COR and / or your Broker may increase its “house” maintenance margin requirements at any time and is not required to provide you with advance notice. These changes in COR’s policy often take effect immediately and may result in the issuance of a maintenance margin call. Your failure to satisfy the call may cause COR to liquidate or sell securities in your account(s). Until written revocation confirmation is received by COR or Broker this Margin Agreement constitutes your continuing consent to effect securities lending transactions. Upon such written revocation, and payment for all balances due to COR, COR will deliver such securities to you if so requested.

Hypothecation of Securities. For any amount due on your account, you authorize that your securities may be pledged, re-pledged, and hypothecated or re-hypothecated, without notice to you, either separately or with securities of other bona fide clients. You represent that you will not allow any securities in any of your accounts to become subject to liens, security interests or other encumbrances. You further represent that you are not controlled by or in control of any issuer of any security you have provided as collateral to COR.

Liquidation. You acknowledge that securities held in your account may be liquidated without notice to satisfy minimum maintenance or margin calls. You are not entitled to choose which securities or other assets in your account(s) are liquidated or sold by COR to meet a margin call. You are not entitled to an extension of time to meet a margin call. While an extension of time to meet margin requirements may be available to you under certain conditions, you do not have a right to the extension. Without limitation, any of the following circumstances may give rise for COR to exercise this power: (i) your failure to promptly meet any call for additional collateral; (ii) the filing of a petition in bankruptcy by or against you; (iii) the appointment of a receiver is filed by or against you; (iv) a significant judgment is entered against you, or any levy is made on your account(s); and (v) the occurrence of any event which, in COR’s or your Broker’s judgment, operates to impair your ability to perform its obligations under this Margin Agreement. In any such event, and without further notice, you authorize COR and/or your Broker to (i) sell any securities held in your account(s); (ii) buy any securities which may be short; (iii) cancel any open order; (iv) to close any outstanding order; and (v) otherwise take any action deemed necessary to comply with applicable statutes, rules and regulations or any other requirements governing your margin account. If for any reason, COR delays to promptly enforce its margin requirements, a subsequent enforcement or right to enforce is not waived.
